F. Norton, Esq.,

Secretary, U.P.A.S.I.,

Bangalore.

Dear Sir,

Attesting Contracts.

At the last meeting of this Association I was instructed to address the Government of Mysore, and to ask if it will allow Patels to be appointed to attest contracts under the Madras Planters' Labour Law. At present no Mysore Officials below the rank of Revenue Inspector (Hobli Sheikdars) are allowed to do this, while Officials of the rank of Village Munsiffs (Patels) are authorised in British Territory. Thus considerable inconvenience is caused to these working under the Labour Law. It is in practice quite impossible for any Maistry to get coolies' contracts attested in Mysore.

Will you kindly forward this letter with a covering one from yourself, as I think it had better go through the U.P.A.S.I. office.

Yours faithfully,

Sd/- C. E. Abbott
